NATIONAL GRANITE ASSOCIATION.

The Business Transacted at the First Meeting of the Association.

The doings of the recent meeting of the National Granite Association held in Boston, are told in the February Rock Products as follows:

The first meeting of the National Association of the Granite Industries of the United States was held on Tuesday, February 7, at the rooms of the Master Builders' Association of Boston, No. 166 Devonshire street.

The meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock a. m., the president, Seward W. Jones, in the chair.

There were present representatives from the Granite Manufacturers' Association of Quincy, Mass., from the Granite Manufacturers' Association of Westbury, R. I., and individual members as follows: Jones Brothers, Barre, Vt.; Booth Brothers, New York; Hurricane Isle Granite Co., New York; Rockport Granite Co., Rockport, Mass.; W. R. Cheves, Lanesville, Mass.; Hall & Granite Works, Hallowell, Me.; Ryan & Parker, New York; Clarke Island Granite Works, Sawyer Granite Co., Nashua; W. N. Flint Granite Co., New England Granite Co., Boston; George B. Merrill & Co., Lynn, Mass.; W. I. White, Rockland, Me.; Bodwell Granite Co., Rockland, Me.; John L. Goss, William A. Engeman, Brooklyn, N. Y., and others.

The business of the meeting was largely routine work incidental to the first meeting of the organization.

The bill of prices recently prepared by the Quartermen's Association of Quincy was considered, approved and ratified.

It was the sense of the meeting that all localities which enter into agreements as to bills of prices should make them to expire at same date in the year, preferably March 1, and also the same year, to the end that all bills may be considered at the same time by the association.

Instructions to this effect are being sent out by the executive committee.

There was general discussion of the policies which the association may finally adopt which occupied the meeting until a late hour in the afternoon, when the meeting adjourned, after electing the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Seward W. Jones of Boston; vice presidents, John L. Miller of Quincy, William Boater of New York, James Gourlay of Westbury, C. H. Rogers of Rockport, O. W. Norcum of Worcester; treasurer, John Q. A. Field of Quincy, Mass.

[This space belongs to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and they are responsible for what they publish.]

A temperance society is not so much a reformatory for drunkards as it is an army of sober, right-living, liberty-loving men and women who are doing battle against the enemies of the state and the destroyers of the home. The battle is on now between sober living and drunkenness; between the saloon and the home; between the church and the liquor traffic. In which army will you cast your lot? The camps are forming; over one floats the white banner of temperance; in it reigns peace and joy; its soldiers are men of clean moral lives; it has in its keeping the safety of the nation; it is the defender of good government; it is the saviour of your homes; it is the salvation of your wives and children.

Over the other floats the black banner of riot and ruin. Alcohol is king there; the saloon keepsers are his servants; poor drunkards his victims. Within it are blasted families, broken-hearted mothers, diseased children, ruined homes.

In which camp will you cast your lot? With which army will you identify your fortunes? In which cause will you say the private word and do the public deed?

Who that desires well of his race or country can hesitate? But, remember, co-operation, active and public, is the need of the hour—lending our lives to the cause whose object is the suppression of intemperance, the establishment of sobriety, the preservation of the home.

Overwork Killing Us

In the Great Struggle for Wealth and Position We Are Becoming Weaker Than Our Forefathers.

By the cares of business and social life we use up or waste away the most vital elements of the human body before we realize our weak and run down condition. It seizes on us so quietly at first that little or no attention is paid to the symptoms, which commence with a queer, bewildering sensation in the head, later the power to concentrate the thoughts, so necessary to brain workers, is lost. Following this will come deficient sight or blurred vision, muscular weakness and a dull pain in the small of the back. There is a tendency to tire easily; the digestion becomes impaired; the temper irritable; spirits depressed, ending in complete lack of confidence and a general feeling of disgust at our own weakness. When the blood and nerve forces have been wasted by disease, overwork, worry, brain-tire, high living, dissipation or other bad habits, Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food rebuilds the system by replacing the same substances that have been lost. Price 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Brown.
